AHA!

WEEK 3

AHA!

Hey everyone! Jesus taught us using stories, or as the Bible calls them, PARABLES! Sometimes we have no idea what His Parables mean. But sometimes, with the help of the Holy Spirit, we can have our own AHA! moments where we can understand some of what Jesus is saying.

DID YOU KNOW?

I shall need
BIGGER
BARNs!

The man who historians believe is the wealthiest man to ever live was Mansa Musa I who ruled the Mali Empire in Africa from 1312 - 1337AD. It is estimated that in today's money, he would have had $400 BILLION!

SCRIPTURE LOOK UP (AND FILL IN THE BLANK)

Find it
here!

In this week's parable, the Wealthy Man gathered up as much money and food as he possibly could just to use it all on himself. A lot of times we think we have to do that otherwise we won't have enough. But God promises He will always take care of us. Look up these scripture verses that tell us why we should have faith in God rather than selfishness.

Keep your lives free from the _____ of
_____ and be
_____ with what you have, because God has said, "_____
will I leave you;
never will I _____
you."

But seek first His

and His

, and all these things will be _____ to you as well.

And God is able to
_____ you
abundantly, so that in all _____ at all times, having all that you _____, you will abound in every good work.

Hebrews 13:5

Matthew 6:33

2 Corinthians 9:8

WORD SEARCH

As you complete this word search, keep this scripture verse in your mind.

The Jesus said, "Beware! Guard against every kind of greed. Life is not measured by how much you own." LUKE 12:15

WHAT IS IT?

There are so many things that become more important to us than God, like video games, friends, sports, and money. None of these things are bad by themselves. But when we would rather have these things than God, that's when things go wrong in our hearts. So now is your chance to write or draw what it is that you tend to put before your relationship with God. Be honest. God already knows what it is anyway!
