Week 2

ThankFULL

This month our series is all about being ThankFULL and remembering to have a THINK/THANK attitude so we don't STINK/STANK.

Let's get you Thinkin'

the Code

Did you know that Braille started out as a military code so French soldiers could write in secret at night in 1819

Braille is a writing system used by people who are blind. They touch a series of bumps on paper that allows them to read, even without seeing the words. When we remember all that we have and all that God has done for us, it helps us to SEE what we have to be ThankFULL for and have a THINK/THANK attitude so we don't STINK/STANK. Use the Braille key to write the underlined portion of this week's Bottom Line in code. You got this, GO!!!!

Exodus Chapters 7-14

Look at the emoji story and see if you can remember the story and re-tell it in your own words. Go back to this week's video if you get stuck.

What was your favorite part of the story?
Where did the Israelites have a THINK/THANK attitude?
Where did the Israelites have a STINK/STANK attitude?

Verse Scramble

Stretch your brain and see if you can unscramble the verse below. When you're done, write it on your bathroom mirror to remind you to have a THINK/THANK attitude whenever you look at it.

what everything instead he done. about;
about worry need, and. Tell thank Don't anything for all has pray God you him.

Philippians 4:6

Live It Out!

Sometimes it can be hard to have a THINK/THANK attitude. Draw a time or a situation where you might be tempted to STINK/STANK. Then write over the top of your picture all the things that you can think of that you can be ThankFULL for.
